Calling All Budding Writers as Exciting International Competition Launches

Satisfyer and BERLINABLE launch international campaign for the best erotic short stories

April 2021: If you have ever read the infamous 50 Shades books and thought, I could do that? then look no further, as sex tech and wellness brand Satisfyer have teamed up with erotica platform BERLINABLE to launch an international erotic short story contest, with a difference. The competition, which is from running April 19th to May 2nd, calls for contestants to submit their own erotic short stories, taking inspiration from the remote function of the Satisfyer Connect App. Follow this link to take part: <https://www.satisfyer.com/uk/erotic-stories/>.

With many of us being forced into taking our relationships long distance over the last year, we've had to figure out how to satisfy our sexual desires remotely. Thankfully, the Satisfyer Connect App provides the opportunity to connect with your partner by controlling their sex device from afar. To take the heat up a notch, the app even allows you to lock eyes with your partner in a secure live stream whilst you take control, and even pair vibrations to the rhythm of your favourite songs.

All participants need to do is summarise their erotic stories into 550-800 words, with a £10 Satisfyer voucher up for grabs for the first 100 participants, as well as the opportunity win a Satisfyer Sexy Secret, Layon vibrator or Satisfyer Royal One, and get free access to the BERLINABLE platform for a whole year. The very best stories will even be published on both BERLINABLE and within the Satisfyer Connect App for people to read and you never know that book deal could be calling.

Megwyn White, Head of Education & Training at Satisfyer and Certified Clinical Sexologist, says: "It is so important to express our sexual desires. This is one of the reasons why we launched the Satisfyer Connect app, to help couples stay in touch sexually, for example during lockdowns, no matter where they are. Also, to make it easier for singles to self-confidently discover their own sexuality and to exchange ideas with others, e.g., in the Satisfyer Connect app chat."
